Big Line of Children's White Dresses

NOW IS YOUR CHANCE

We received during the past week several lots of Suits, Coats and Skirts—these to tone up our stocks. And, too, the manufacturers, being unable to fill our orders until late, they have made prices that enable us to offer these at less than they were intended to be sold for. We were glad of this opportunity and you can profit thereby.

Coats! One lot, pretty plaids and mixtures, velvet collar, length 45 inches. $ 5.98

Suits! In pretty mixtures, invisible plaids and stripes. Show as much style as an $18.00 Suit. 12.50

Skirts! A six-gored circular Skirt in different mixtures, in this sale for only 3.50

Besides the above-mentioned we have several others, but there are not enough in any of them to classify. The values are there just the same.

Of interest to depositors—In view of the present business activity resulting in an increased demand, with generally higher rates for money, the Granite Savings Bank and Trust Company announce an increase in the rate of interest paid depositors. See announcement on fourth page.

See Emerson and Bolieu, the hoop rollers and jugglers, Neil Hickey, the man with a hundred parodies, Miss May Davis, the singing and dancing girl, Howe, the man who mystifies, Harry Codrington, a little of everything, Miss Perry Kenable, latest illustrated songs, all with the Lorne Elwyn Company.

The cheerful man is pre-eminently a useful man. Therefore it is essential that each person be cheerful, and go where cheer is to be found. The Presbyterian church will give one of those popular concerts it is so famous for, where cheer will be dished out to all, for the small sum of 10 and 15 cents, Tuesday, May 8th. It is one good chance to become cheerful; therefore useful.

Nothing Succeeds Like Merit.

This is applicable to The Lorne Elwyn company, supporting Miss Gladys Grey, which begin a three-night engagement at the opera house on Thursday night, May 10th. Mr. Elwyn himself positively appears with this company and Miss Grey, who has become known as the best of the young, pretty actresses of the century, will be seen in all of the leading roles. The plays to be reproduced are only of the very best. The specialties between acts will be a positive novelty even in this age of vaudeville novelties, and will include Davis, the musician, and Emerson and Bolieu, who are too well known to need comment. The company will open with "The Little Minister," "The Singing Girl," "The Girl from the Golden East." The prices will remain the same. Ladies will be given the usual 15-cent complimentary tickets, which, limited to 200, will go on sale at the Red Cross pharmacy Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Concert Programme Arranged.

The following is the programme for the concert to be given at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, May 8: Bass Solo—The Mighty Deep. J. J. McKenna. Music—Selected. Mandolin Club. CHICAGO BUTTS

Do you know that there is a kind of Beef which may be used for both steak and roast, which is as nice as any meat to be bought and which, in price, is away below the ordinary cuts? This piece of meat which has so many virtues is the Chicago Butt. It is clear meat, not a bit of waste to it. It is not pickled or corned, but is shipped from the great markets of Chicago in airtight tanks. Unless you have tried this particular kind of meat you have no idea of the great economy gained by using them. We always have a fresh supply of these on hand and will be glad to deliver one to you and give you an opportunity to try one.

Soldiers and Peasants.

Act I.—Scene 1.—Interior of David O'Connor's farmhouse. Bernard Kavanagh, the landlord, visits the home of David in the hope of winning his pretty daughter, Kathleen. He is accompanied by his sister, who requires many attentions; she rewards Kathleen by a gift on leaving. Bernard sends a letter to Kathleen and while she is musing on its contents, Terrence O'Moore, Kathleen's lover, comes to seek her hand in marriage. At the close of the scene Kathleen falls asleep and dreams. (Orchestra.)

Act II.—Scene 1.—An apartment in the mansion of Bernard Kavanagh's is shown. Kathleen, though surrounded with wealth is very unhappy, as she had wedded a man she did not and cannot love, and he despises her and seeks to rid himself of her company. He procures the assistance of Captain Clearfield, but is cleverly balked by the appearance of Father O'Connell, who performed the ceremony without Kavanagh's knowledge. Kitty Lavery and Billy Button Cap appear and create a sensation. (Orchestra.)

Act III.—Scene 1.—A wild rocky view. Kavanagh has arranged the murder of his wife, Kathleen. Black Roddy, a ruffian, makes a contract to do the job, but is cleverly tricked by Terrence O'Moore. The latter is taken prisoner, is tried and convicted.

Act IV.—Scene 1.—Interior of a prison. A melancholy meeting between Kathleen and Terrence. A final parting. Kathleen's repentance and promise to Terrence. Terrence's bravery, facing death like a man, comforted and encouraged by Father O'Connell. Scene 2.—Interior of David's cottage, and Kathleen, who has a very disturbed sleep and a dream that makes her realize that wealth without love is to be despised. She accepts Terrence and when Kavanagh returns he (Terrence) refuses with the little word N-O-No. (Orchestra.)

Instrumental selections by Mr. Fred Whittier (violin), Mr. Carl Fornet (cornet), and Wilder's orchestra. Vocal selections and specialties by Al. Blanchard, John Kenesh, Master James Hughes and Ida Hughes.

Tickets now on sale at the Red Cross Pharmacy. Admission, 35c, 25c and 50c.
